

Recruitment Facilitator

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am currently completing my second year of my B.Ed. degree at the University of South Africa. My motivation as to why I am applying, and should be considered for this role, pertains to; my financial neediness.

Through my experiences, my leadership skills were enhanced, and that is my reason to believe that I am the best candidate for this advancement.

Thanking the addresses for the time and effort.

You may move forward with my application.

Sincerely

Bapela Sabatha, Student at UNISA
